IMPACT REPORT

Lyric

FROM THE BOARD CHAIR AND GENERAL DIRECTOR

We are proud to share Lyric Opera of Chicago's Impact Report for the 2024/25 Season.

Any assessment of the season has to begin with the company's work onstage — and what a year it was! Our orchestra and chorus, outstanding visiting artists, and the many backstage and front-of-house staff, amply demonstrated our stature as one of the finest opera companies in the world. From powerful productions of classic repertoire like Rigoletto and La Bohème, to leading-edge works like Blue and The Listeners, the season offered a compelling mix.

Audiences responded. We sold more than 109,000 tickets in the 2024/25 Season, up from 105,000 the year before — and as a result, earned revenue increased to $14 million from last season's $12.8. The number of total households attending a performance rose to more than 26,600, up from 25,000 the season before. Close to 46 percent of those were first-time ticket buyers, a figure that's more than encouraging; it is an outlier in our group of peer institutions. The season concluded the second year of the company's Five-Year Financial Plan, with extremely encouraging results. More than 7,800 donors contributed a total of $32,102,422, exceeding our ambitious fundraising goal. The Women's Board Season Opening Gala, featuring three-time Tony Award winner Patti LuPone, surpassed expectations in style, raising nearly $1.5 million.

Along the way, we celebrated each other and our community. In a season that marked its 50th anniversary, Ensemble members from The Patrick G. and Shirley W. Ryan Opera Center took 22 roles on our mainstage; four alumni returned as well — a figure that does not include a special appearance by Matthew Polenzani, one of the program's most esteemed alums, at the Ryan Opera Center's Golden Gala.

There are many more noteworthy moments in the pages that follow. Thanks to you, our donors, stakeholders, and supporters, Lyric's future is bright. We look forward to being there with you.

BRAVO, ENRIQUE

“The rich architectural landscape of Chicago is a testament to the modernity of the city, which inspires me to offer in our Lyric seasons not only great classics but modern and contemporary operas.”

—Enrique Mazzola

Maestro Enrique Mazzola, the third music director in Lyric's history, completed his fourth season of spectacular performances with the company.

He continues to cement his legacy as a distinguished conductor, leading both classic and contemporary performances and attracting new audiences that represent the diverse culture of Chicago.

Opening Lyric's 70th season, Mazzola was on the podium for Rigoletto, his sixth Verdi opera at Lyric, and received excellent notices for his interpretation. He also conducted Beethoven's only opera, Fidelio, for the first time at Lyric, and collaborated with renowned soprano Sondra Radvanovsky for The Puccini Heroines, an evening-length showcase which was recorded for future commercial release.

Mazzola also conducted Missy Mazzoli's The Listeners, a genre-defying contemporary opera with innovative videography; A Wondrous Sound, a concert featuring beloved choruses from Puccini, Rossini, Bizet, Wagner, and more; portions of A Concert Celebrating the Life of Sir Andrew Davis in honor of the revered music director, Mazzola's predecessor; and selections in the Ryan Opera Center's Rising Stars in Concert program. As part of Lyric Unlimited's ongoing partnership with the Merit School of Music, Enrique visited and rehearsed with the school's resident string ensemble.

Lyric wishes to express its enduring gratitude to the members of the Enrique Circle:

WOMEN'S BOARD

The Women's Board is composed of 62 of Chicago's most influential women and passionate Lyric supporters. Their dedication made Lyric's 2024/25 Season all the more special, as they hosted spectacular events like the Opening Gala starring Patti LuPone.

The Women's Board experienced another rewarding year under the new direction of President Karen Z. Gray-Krehbiel, a leader of outstanding devotion. Gray-Krehbiel previously chaired such exceptional events as Lyric Under the Stars in 2021.

In addition to raising significant funds for Lyric, the Women's Board is also committed to sharing the magic of opera with new audiences. In March 2025, the Women's Board hosted Civic Night at Lyric. Under the leadership of Chair Eileen Murphy, the event welcomed more than 200 corporate and community partners — many of whom were new visitors to Lyric — for a mesmerizing performance of Puccini's La Bohème.

The Women's Board members, attendees, and sponsors of the annual gala raised $1,450,000.

The Women's Board Season Opening Gala

starred three-time Tony Award winner Patti LuPone. In October 2024, the legendary star performed Patti LuPone: A Life in Notes, a brand-new show and her only scheduled solo concert in North America that fall. The Season Opening Gala, chaired by Ann Jones and Karen Gray-Krehbiel, welcomed a sold-out audience of over 300 guests.

SEASON & AUDIENCE DEVELOPMENT

Lyric

The 2024/25 Season at Lyric Opera of Chicago featured a robust mix of expertly produced classics, special presentations, and riveting premieres — and audiences responded. Tickets sold totaled more than 109,000, up from 105,000 last season, and as a result earned revenue increased $1.2 million.

First time ticket buyers, an important measurement of marketing efforts, increased to 46 percent, over 38 percent the previous year. The company's first live film with orchestra, Singin' in the Rain, was a spectacular sold-out success, proving that new audiences of multiple generations felt welcome in the opera house. Above all, artistic excellence ruled the day, with world-class artists bringing opera to life on our stage.

LYRIC UNLIMITED

LEARNING AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

Lyric Unlimited, the company's Learning and Civic Engagement department, offered a robust slate of programs in the 2024/25 Season, expanding on its already significant reach to schools, students, teachers, and the community members they serve.

Lyric

Among the numerous successful initiatives were:

OPERA RESIDENCY PROGRAM

This initiative supports Chicago Public Schools that have limited to no arts or music programming. Lyric Teaching Artists served 1,175 students in 52 classrooms from 21 schools. As part of the Opera Discovery Project and High School Choir Residency, teachers select one mainstage production as part of their curriculum. The six schools that participated in the Opera Discovery Project program chose La Bohème (4 schools), The Marriage of Figaro (1 school), and Blue (1 school). The five schools that participated in the High School Choir Residency chose Rigoletto (2 schools) and La Bohème (3 schools).

HIGH SCHOOL CHOIR RESIDENCY AND CHORAL FEST

On January 24, 2025, Lyric Unlimited hosted an extraordinary day-long festival, exclusive to its high school choir residency partners. Held in the Lyric Opera House, and concluding with a final rehearsal on the main stage, Choral Fest provided a collaborative space for music educators across those school populations, an often-expressed need by music teachers in the Chicago Public School System. Final rehearsal was led by Michael Black, Lyric's Chorus Director and Head of Music, and the combined choir featured 120 students from 5 high schools.

DRESS REHEARSALS FOR MAINSTAGE PRODUCTIONS

This free program, which also includes scholarships to offset bus transportation costs, brought more than 1,733 students to attend final dress rehearsals for Rigoletto, The Marriage of Figaro, Blue, and La Bohème. Lyric Unlimited provided 35 bus scholarships.

LYRIC UNLIMITED — LEARNING & CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

Lyric

OPERA IN THE NEIGHBORHOODS

This program brings a professional production of an opera written especially for younger audiences to venues across Chicagoland. This year's entertaining offering, Frida Kahlo and the Bravest Girl in the World, reached 2,113 community members as well as 8,384 students and teachers from 99 schools. 87 scholarships were provided for bus transportation.

PRE-OPERA TALKS

One hour prior to each mainstage performance, opera experts hosted a free 30-minute discussion for patrons to learn more about the production. The audio for the pre-opera talk was also recorded for those unable to attend.

LYRIC UNLIMITED ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE KAREN SLACK

For the 2024/25 Season, the Lyric Unlimited Artist-in-Residence was renowned soprano Karen Slack. Beginning the season with a guest appearance with artists from the Ryan Opera Center at Lyric's Sunday in the Park concert in August 2024, Slack subsequently hosted master classes at DePaul University, Northwestern University, Roosevelt University, and Northern Illinois University, curated musical forums, and participated in panel discussions of various types.

In February 2025, her album Beyond the Years, released by Azica Records in collaboration with ONEcomposer, made history by winning the Grammy Award for Best Classical Solo Vocal — the first time the award has been given to a recording composed entirely by a Black woman. That album, featuring 19 songs by composer Florence Price, provided the material for the final of the three recitals Slack gave: the first, Of Thee I Sing! Songs of Love and Justice, was held in the Daniel F. and Ada L. Rice Grand Foyer; the second, Dream Variations took place at Northwestern University. "These performances are deeply personal to me," Slack said. "I want the audience to walk away feeling both challenged and inspired. Each recital reflects a different part of who I am as an artist."

LYRIC UNLIMITED: LEARNING AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

LU SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE / OPERA INSIGHTS

Dr. Antonio C. Cuyler, a professor at the University of Michigan, helped expand Lyric's efforts to increase access to opera and the arts to underserved communities through programs that explored the themes, content, and artistic process for artists and communities outside of Lyric. Our engagement program provided 29 opportunities for over 12,000 patrons and community members who attended programs that expanded the themes and stories told on stage including the Opera Insights panel discussions, art exhibitions on the main floor and mezzanine at the Lyric Opera House, and a performance by D-Compressed, a Black chamber music collective string quartet.

THE PATRICK G. AND SHIRLEY W.

RYAN OPERA CENTER

For the artists and staff of The Patrick G. and Shirley W. Ryan Opera Center, the 2024/25 Season signaled a remarkable milestone: the program celebrated its 50th anniversary.

Featuring stellar mainstage performances and numerous understudy roles by Ryan Opera Center singers, as well as significant rehearsal and other production assistance by the Ensemble's pianist, conductor, stage director, and stage manager, the season felt celebratory from start to finish, including a dazzling Golden Gala and end-of-season Rising Stars in Concert.

More than 200 supporters gathered in February for the Golden Gala, a celebration of the 50th anniversary of The Patrick G. and Shirley W. Ryan Opera Center. Along with a fabulous dinner, guests enjoyed entertaining performances by Ryan Opera Center Ensemble Members, Music Director Craig Terry, and a special guest – star tenor Matthew Polenzani, an alum of the program.

The Gala, one of several celebratory events, raised more than $1.25 million.

THE PATRICK G. AND SHIRLEY W. RYAN OPERA CENTER

As the culmination of the program's 50th anniversary celebrations, a very special Rising Stars in Concert was held on April 25, 2025. The entire 2024/25 Ensemble was featured in a performance of excerpts from Offenbach's Orpheus in the Underworld along with some other musical surprises. Lyric Music Director Enrique Mazzola led the concert, which was directed by Paul Curran. A particularly meaningful component was the introduction of some 50 Ryan Opera Center alumni, representing Ensembles from 1984 through 2023, who returned to Lyric to join in the celebration.

PEOPLE & CULTURE

The People & Culture department of Lyric Opera of Chicago continues to focus on inclusive, community-building efforts, creating sustainable change in the systems that shape daily experiences — known, internally, as Life@Lyric. Among the successful initiatives in the 2024/25 Season are:

INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Sponsored by co-trustees the Elizabeth Morse Genius Charitable Trust, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., and Jim Alexander, Lyric's internship program had an extraordinary year. A total of 17 interns, drawn from an applicant pool of 1,955, provided more than 10,000 paid hours of work to the company. The talented young adults contributed important work across all areas of the operation, gaining valuable real-world experience about working in the arts. From the 2024/25 cohort, six are already in full time positions at Lyric and other major institutions, two have begun graduate programs, and the remainder are completing their undergraduate degrees.

COMMUNITY RESOURCE NETWORKS

An initiative started two seasons ago, the CRNs continue to grow, evolve, and provide resources and community for various groups within Lyric. Current CRNs are ALAANA (African, Latine/x, Asian, Arab, Native American, and mixed ancestry identities, formerly BIPOC); Emerging Lyric Leaders; Empowering Women; Lyric+ (formerly LGBTQIA+); Visible & Invisible Disabilities (added invisible disabilities); Lyric Page Turners (a book club); and CareGivers.

CELEBRATORY COMMEMORATIONS

All year long, the department produces thoughtful programming to celebrate various cultural landmarks. Among those this past season were activities around Women's History Month, National Caribbean American Heritage Month, Juneteenth, MLK Day of Service, Pride Month, and Hispanic Heritage Month.

WITH GRATITUDE

In March 2025, the leadership of Lyric Opera of Chicago announced a transformational gift from Penelope Steiner, longtime supporter and Vice Chair of its Board of Directors. The unprecedented, unrestricted gift of $25 million is one of the largest individual contributions in the company's history.

"This gift from Penelope is a profound affirmation of her unwavering belief in our mission and our commitment to pushing the boundaries of what an opera company can be," said John Mangum, General Director, President & CEO of Lyric Opera of Chicago. "Her inspiring generosity empowers us to expand our artistic vision, deepen our service to our community, expose more new audiences to opera, and create innovative productions that promote the vibrancy of our art form."

A decades-long supporter of and donor to Lyric, she began subscribing in 1982. Over the years, Lyric became a central part of her cultural life, deepening her passion for opera and its role in the community. Since joining Lyric's Board of Directors in 2021, she has served on the Executive Committee, helping to shape the company's future, and was recently elected Vice Chair. She was an inaugural member and is incoming Honorary Chair of the Enrique Circle, a group dedicated to supporting the artistry of Music Director Enrique Mazzola.

"Penelope's passion for Lyric is extraordinary," said Mazzola. "Her commitment to both our rich legacy and bold future empowers us to take artistic risks and reach new creative heights."

At Lyric's annual meeting in May, Steiner was presented with the Carol Fox Award, the company's most prestigious honor, and formally announced an historic recognition of the gift. Beginning in the 2025/26 Season, the main floor seating area of the opera house will be named "The Robert and Penelope Steiner Parquet."

"Penelope's generosity serves as a shining example of leadership and vision," said Sylvia Neil, Chair of Lyric's Board of Directors. "We are honored by her trust and inspired by her commitment."
